

7th June 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

This year, Father's Day is on Sunday 16th June and as per tradition we would like to invite dads, grandads or uncles into school to share a book with the children on Monday 17th June at 2:45pm. So mums and grandmas do not miss out, we are looking to do a similar event next Mother's Day too. There are many books in our library which your child is more than welcome to choose from for you to read on the Monday.

Arrangements are:

- 2:45pm – Meet in reception after signing in
- 2:50pm – Go to the classroom door of your youngest child
- 2:55pm – Class teachers will send siblings to the classroom of their youngest brother or sister.
- 3.00pm – Dads/grandads/uncles invited into classrooms. Please bring a book to read which will last about 15 minutes.
- We do not expect that every child will have an adult who can visit. Therefore, teachers will put the children into small groups. (Please let us know if you are willing to read to anyone other than your own child/ren!) – We hope the weather will be fine and we can go just outside classrooms to read – if not, we will stay indoors.
- All groups will be in view of the class teacher at all times so that DBS checks are not required.
- 3:20pm – All children back to their normal classrooms to get ready for the end of the day. All dads/grandads/uncles to sign out at reception and go around to meet their children for home time.

Please sign the attached slip and return it to the class teacher of your eldest child.

Yours sincerely,

Helen Morgan
English Leader
